

Anglo-Japanese Conference on Medical Education 2005

Japan Medical Education Foundation
The Council of Heads of Medical Schools of the UK

Contents

Programme	2
Participants	5
Opening Addresses	8
1: Approaches to Medical Education
The Case for New Curricula	10
Undergraduate Medical Training: Undergoing reform ... losing the plot?	13
PBL Curricula Among Japanese Medical Schools	17
Graduate Entry Medicine	23
Nationwide Perspective of Better Student Selection in Japan	27
The Role of Research in Undergraduate Medical Education	33
Nurturing Research-oriented Minds in Japanese Undergraduate Medical Education	36
Quality Assurance of Medical Education in the UK	40
Quality Assurance of Japanese Medical Education	44
2: The Role of the Community in Medical Education
GPs as Educators	50
Education of Community Medicine in Japan	54
Role of Affiliate Hospitals in the UK	58
Matching Programme and Postgraduate Training in Japan	63
3: Faculty Development and the Maintenance of Research-Rich Environments
Faculty Development in the UK	71
Faculty Development in Japan	74
Revalidation System in the UK	79
Protecting the Clinical Academic Career	85
4: Doctors in the 21st Century
What does Society Require of Its Doctors?	91
Changes of Environment for National Medical Schools	95
Five Ways to Kill a Profession – Threats to Medicine	100
The Impact of Demographic Changes on Medical Education	105
5: How Shall We Foster Anglo-Japanese Collaboration?		111
Round-up The Way Forward: Developing Closer Research and European Links	117
Closing Remarks	119
Special Lecture on Basic Research
Intracellular Transport and Kinesin Superfamily Proteins, KIFs, Key Molecules for Life: Genes, Structure, Dynamics, Functions, and Diseases	120
Reference: Anglo-Japanese Conference on Medical Education in the 21st Century
Conference Programme	141
Participants	144
Summary	146
Joint Statement	147	